The Ruth Crawford Mitchell Scholarship - University of Pittsburgh
Nationality Rooms and Intercultural Exchange Programs

Stipendium pro krátkodobý výzkumný pobyt pro pracovníky ve vzdělávacím, vládním či komerčním sektoru.

Purpose

To bring an individual from the Czech Republic's academic, government or commercial sector to the University of Pittsburgh for a term of non-degree research will enhance the applicant's career and deal with problems confronting the Czech and Slovak Republics. Research in education, science, public administration, political science, economics and/or sociology is encouraged.

Eligibility:

A resident citizen of the Czech Republic or Slovakia who will return there within three months following the completion of the scholarship to pursue his or her career. Applicants must have completed a university degree, and not be currently enrolled in a university program of study. Several years work experience is mandatory. An excellent working knowledge of English is required as the scholar will be required to function independently in the Pittsburgh environment.

Dates and Length of Stay:

The research will take place between late August and December (to complete Fall Term) of the calendar year in which the application is made - approximately 3-1 months.

Proposal:

Applicant should not plan to attend formal classes at the University of Pittsburgh due to high tuition costs. Arranging informal class visits is the scholar's responsibility. Proposals, which involve interviews, library research and personally conducted surveys should specify a research focus and outline the research methodology.

References:

Three references are required, one of them from University of Pittsburgh faculty or staff member who is willing to advise the scholar concerning the research project while in Pittsburgh.

Reference deadline: March 20, 2002.

Amount of the Award: $5,000

Application Deadline:

Applications must be received at the University of Pittsburgh by March 30, 2002.

Please allow 6 weeks for delivery. Application received after the deadline cannot be considered.
