

For Českomoravský cement the member of the HeidelbergCement group we are seeking to recruit a Management trainee. Throughout the training you will be prepared for future professional challenges and job opportunities available in any Area Europe countries with the main focus on Russia and Central Asia.

Description of the position

- Training programme in the fields of Industrial Engineering or Business Administration/Finance
- Participates in special projects and assignments

Requirements/Preferred Skills

- University degree in Business Administration or Industrial Engineering (process engineering, chemical engineering, mining or equivalent)
- First practical experience (Knowledge of cement chemistry, materials and civil engineering) is an advantage
- Strong communication skills
- Organizational skills and self-management
- Very good computer skills
- Very good English and good Russian language skills
- Willingness to travel abroad

Send application

If, after reviewing the responsibilities and requirements, you believe that you have the necessary skills and qualifications and are interested in the position, please send your application in English and Czech.

Contact:

Českomoravský cement, a.s.

Ing. Eva Homolová

Mokrá 359

664 09 Mokrá cementárna

Tel: 544 122 616, Fax: 544 155 650

E-mail: eva.homolova@cmcem.cz

In accordance with the Act No. 101/2000 on the Protection of Personal Data, I hereby provide my consent to process and store all my personal data. I provide the aforementioned data for processing to Českomoravský cement, a.s., nástupnická společnost, exclusively for the purpose of helping me to find a job. The consent to process and store the aforementioned data is limited to the duration of the selection procedure, but for a period of one year after submitting them, at longest.

